

NH State Government

State House of Representatives

As a result of redistricting in 2012, Exeter was reassigned a new district number. In the November 6, 2012 election, Exeter voters chose four representatives under the new district, District 18. The new district serves only the Town of Exeter in the state legislature. The 2010 population of the district is 14,306, the same as the Town of Exeter. Current representatives serving Exeter are Donna Schlachman, Steve Briden, Frank Heffron, and Eileen Flockhart.

The Town is also now a member of floterial district 36. This district has one representative covering the Towns of Exeter, Newfields, Newmarket, and Stratham. The population of the floater district is 32,177, including Exeter (14,306), Newfields (1680), Newmarket (8936) and Stratham (7255). Patricia Lovejoy of Stratham is the current representative from District 36. All population numbers are from the 2010 census.

The total size of the New Hampshire General Court is 400.

State Senate

Exeter is represented in the State Senate by Russell Prescott, as part of District 23. The total population of District 23, according to the 2010 census, is 53,009. Towns included in District 23 are Brentwood (4486), Chester (4768), Danville (4387), East Kingston (2357), Epping (6411), Exeter (14,306), Fremont (4283), Kingston (6025), and Sandown (5986).

The total size of the New Hampshire State Senate is 24.
